

HORKHEIMER AND O'BRIEN DELEGATES.

District Convention Acted Wisely in the selection of the Men Who Will Vote for McKinley

AT PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

Assembly Noted for Harmony and Enthusiasm—Ready for the Big Convention To-Day.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., May 7.—The convention of the First congressional district Republicans, called for the purpose of choosing two delegates and two alternates to the national convention at Philadelphia, was not called to order until 3:16 o'clock this afternoon, and, singular to relate, the gathering was delayed by the failure to arrive on time of the delegations from the counties nearest to Clarksburg, Lewis and Braxton.

The convention was called to order by Congressional Committeeman S. C. Denham, of Harrison, and in forty-five minutes it had transacted all its business and listened to several speeches of thanks. It was certainly a record-breaker for the rapidity with which the affairs in hand were disposed of.

It was a convention that was remarkable for the harmony and enthusiasm that were displayed, and in point of attendance far surpassed expectations, fully two hundred Republicans, representing the eleven counties of the district, being present when the proceedings were opened.

In the selection of Colonel Morris Horkheimer, of Wheeling, and Captain Daniel O'Brien, of Gilmer county, as delegates to the Philadelphia national nominating convention the convention did itself proud; both are men who will size up well with the best of the Republican party of the nation, which will be so numerously represented in the City of Brotherly Love next month. The alternates, too, are excellent men, and the choice of Captain Carney will be well received by his many friends in Wheeling and along the line of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

Senator George Cole, of Weston, was made chairman of the convention, and George E. Work, of Sistersville, secretary. The temporary organization was made permanent, and Chairman Cole accepted in a neat speech that was enthusiastically received.

The following committee on resolutions was appointed:

Resolutions.

Brooke—M. A. Jones.
Braxton—W. E. Morrison.
Gilmer—T. S. Jones.
Lewis—J. M. Hayden.
Bodderidge—J. A. Carter.
Harrison—Dr. A. O. Flower.
Marshall—W. L. Conner.
Hancock—R. H. Brown.
Ohio—John Frew.
Tyler—C. R. Long.
Wetzel—J. F. Rigler.

A committee on credentials was dispensed with, and on motion of B. F. Meighen, of Marshall, every Republican present was made a delegate.

A committee on basis of representation was called for, but on motion was dispensed with, with the understanding that the basis should be one vote for each one hundred votes cast for Governor Atkinson in 1896.

The committee on resolutions retired, and in the meantime the convention proceeded to the election of delegates and alternates, two each, to the national nominating convention at Philadelphia.

George W. McClary, of Brooke county, made the Horkheimer nominating speech. Taking his cue from the chairman for the dispatch of business, he said he would make his remarks brief and to the point. Brooke had no candidate of her own for delegate to Philadelphia, but her candidate, though coming from another county, would honor the district if chosen to represent it at Philadelphia. He would nominate a man who is broad shouldered and broad minded and free hearted, a good man in or out of politics. He would honor not only this district, but the state of West Virginia. Not long ago an honored vessel was launched with imposing ceremonies at San Francisco; he referred to the gunboat Wheeling. In a few short days a noble craft—the Republican presidential nomination—is to be launched at Philadelphia, and the yeomanry of West Virginia are needed to assist in launching William McKinley for a second term. He needed only to mention the name of his candidate—Colonel Morris Horkheimer, of Wheeling—who would assist in the launching at Philadelphia and in landing the party's choice in the White House next November. Cheers greeted this sentiment.

Senator George Cole, the chairman of the convention, calling Colonel Horkheimer, to the chair, took the floor to place Captain Daniel U. O'Brien, of Gilmer, in nomination. His choice for delegate to Philadelphia was comparatively a young man, coming from the central part of the state; a man from up in the woods in an undeveloped county of minerals; a man whose home is in one of the strong Democratic counties, where he cannot hope for reward unless it comes through the aid of the people of a larger portion of the state. He is a farmer who knows how to deal with the farmers and knows their needs; he was educated at the State University, an institution of which every West Virginian is proud; a man who led in the front one hundred of

DEWEY WILD

Was the City of Memphis—Surrenders Unconditionally to the Gallant Sailor—Negroes Tender Him a Reception.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 7.—Memphis went Dewey wild to-day and the city surrendered unconditionally to the gallant admiral and his gracious wife. The climax of the day's festivities was a gorgeous flower parade this afternoon which passed through the principal streets and received the plaudits of thousands of enthusiastic citizens and visitors. The second day of the celebration dawned with clear sky and a refreshing breeze blowing steadily from the south. From end to end the city was in gayest holiday attire. Decorations lined the thoroughfares and flags and bunting and Dewey paraphernalia stretched up and down Main street in one long unbroken line.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey arose at an early hour and breakfasted alone. Promptly at the appointed time the boom of a cannon announced that the parade had formed and was ready for the word to march. The various divisions formed on East Court and adjacent streets. The grand stand on Second street was filled with people from early in the afternoon until the time came for the pageant to move. The carriage in which Admiral and Mrs. Dewey rode was drawn by four horses and was decorated in the national colors.

The conspicuous feature in the parade was "Uncle Sam," who occupied the place of honor. His vehicle, drawn by four horses, was elegantly decorated and with a great American eagle surmounting the canopy.

After reviewing the parade, which was two miles long, Admiral Dewey was escorted to the auditorium, where a reception tendered by the representative negroes of the city, was held. The admiral talked pleasantly and freely with many of the colored men and evinced much interest in their condition. The visitors were then driven to the hotel for a few hours rest.

To-night, Admiral and Mrs. Dewey, accompanied by Lieutenants Caldwell and Crawford, visited the Lyceum theatre and later repaired to the Grand Opera house, where a full dress ball was given in their honor.

PENSION LAWS

Amended in the House—Of Benefit to Widows.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—This was suspension day in the house, and quite a number of bills were passed. The most important was the senate bill to amend the general pension laws so as to provide for aggregating disabilities under the act of 1890, without regard to service origin, and to increase the net income a widow may have without destroying her right to a pension from $30 to $250. The purpose of the bill is to modify rulings of the pension office in accordance with the recommendation of the G. A. R. It was passed without a dissenting voice.

The bill to increase the appropriation for the National Guard from $400,000 to $1,000,000 also was among those passed. Mr. Sulzer (N. Y.) attempted to secure action upon his resolution expressing sympathy with the Boers, but was cut off by the speaker.

Will Nominate Bryan.

OMAHA, Neb., May 7.—About four hundred persons sat down to the banquet board of the Peter Cooper dollar dinner at the Coliseum this evening. Half of this number perhaps was made up of delegates to the Populist convention at Sioux Falls. It was given out on excellent authority that the delegates had agreed to nominate Mr. Bryan on Wednesday and to leave the second place open to be made the subject of a conference. A conference committee is to be named to meet a like committee at Kansas City.

Gives Peculiar Advice.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation of Labor, addressed the striking cigar-makers in Bohemia hall to-day and advised them to disregard the injunction issued by Justice Freedman, which prohibits them from picketing or attempting in any way to deter others from taking their places, and enjoins sympathizers from giving financial aid for the purpose of continuing the strike.

Prisoners to go to Georgetown.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 7.—The five prisoners, Powers, Youtsey, Davis, Whittaker and Combs, charged with being accessories to the Goebel murder, whose cases have been transferred to Georgetown for trial in July, will be taken there to-morrow. The county officers will unite in a request to Governor Beckham to send the Democratic soldiers home as soon as the prisoners leave here.

Their Appointments Settled.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—It is understood that the President has practically decided upon John C. Baird, of Wyoming, as the United States attorney for Hawaii, and Daniel A. Rey, of Illinois, as United States marshal.

African Conference.

COLUMBUS, May 7.—The quadrennial general conference of the African M. E. church opened to-day in the Columbus auditorium, with over four hundred delegates present.

PARTY MEN CONGREGATING AT FAIRMONT.

Much Interest Manifested for Plums That Are Only Empty Honors. White on the Scene.

HAPTONSTALL STILL ON DECK

With a Contesting Delegation From Fayette—Candidates for State Offices Make Their Appearance.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., May 7.—Fairmont is decorated in honor of the visit of the Knights Templar Wednesday, and to-night the Republican hosts of West Virginia are pouring into the town in train load lots, appropriating all this honor to themselves. The leaders are surprised to see so much interest and such an assured large attendance at a convention whose only plums are empty honors. Both of the leading hotels are filled to overflowing to-night, and cots are in demand.

Many of the leading party men are already on the scene, including Governor Atkinson, Secretary of State Dawson, Hon. A. B. White, Congressman Doyner, Congressman Dayton, General Curtin, Arnold Scherr, James K. Hall, Senators Marshall, Cole and Baker and scores of others. Many of the Fourth district delegates are not yet here, having stopped at Ravenswood to attend the congressional nominating convention. The convention, according to the programme announced to-night by State Chairman Dawson, will be opened at noon to-morrow, when committees will be appointed and a recess taken until 3 o'clock. During the recess the Second district convention to name delegates and alternates to the Philadelphia convention, will be held. For the two district delegate plums the following aspirants are announced: S. C. Cross, of Morgan county; Colonel John W. Riggs, of Terra Alta; L. J. Forcman, of Grant county; C. A. White-shot, of Mannington, and Senator Sam Gramm, of Taylor county. There are at least two aspirants from each congressional district for delegates-at-large. The announced candidates are the following:

First district—General G. W. Curtin, of Braxton; C. M. Hart, of Harrison. Second district—Fairfax Landstreet, of Tucker; G. W. Z. Black, of Jefferson. Third district—J. E. Dana, of Kanawha; ex-Congressman C. P. Dorr, of Webster. Fourth district—E. H. Flynn, of Boone; Taylor McClure, of Wayne.

To-night at a late hour the state central committee is in session behind closed doors and the result of its deliberations is not known. Aside from the convention proper there is even more interest in the contests for places on the state ticket. Both Hall and Scherr and their many able lieutenants are working like beavers to-night.

The home candidate, C. W. Swisher, is mixing with the crowd like his two competitors, and is making a good impression. Mr. LaFollett is expected to-night. Of course, Mr. White is having it all his own way for governor. His troubles are over and no signs of political worry wrinkles his countenance. However, as secretary of the state committee he is a very busy man to-night. The candidates for state treasurer and attorney general are expected on the scene in the morning. Mr. Showalter, of Ritchie, is already on the ground and making friends. Senators Elkins and Scott are expected to arrive in the morning from Washington. Both have rooms reserved at the Watson. There is some talk of sending both to Philadelphia as delegates-at-large. Governor Atkinson's friends are also desirous of having him stand for election as delegate-at-large. The resolutions to-morrow will strongly endorse the administration of President McKinley and call upon West Virginia's delegates to aid in his re-nomination.

The St. Louis platform will be reaffirmed and expansion will receive a strong endorsement. Many of the delegates are here with their Templar uniforms, and will remain for Wednesday's grand commandery convocation. The indications point to a large attendance from all sections of the state. The convention will be welcomed to Fairmont by Hon. John W. Mason. Governor Atkinson will be temporary chairman, and W. E. Glascock, of Morgantown, secretary. A feature to-morrow will be a contesting delegation from Fayetteville district, in Fayette county. Dr. J. J. Haptonstall is engineering the contest, and is backed by T. G. McKell, of Ohio, who has bought a newspaper in Fayette and will essay a whirl in West Virginia politics. Dr. Haptonstall is the Republican legislator who stood out against Scott's election. R. M. A.

START FOR FAIRMONT.

Frank Capen was the chairman and E. H. Flynn the secretary of the convention.

The congressional executive committee announced that a convention for the nomination of a congressional candidate from this district would be held at Point Pleasant on July 12.

HOT TIME FOR HUBBIES.

Women of Waverly Will Make It Warm for the Men Who Signed the Saloon Petition.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, May 7.—Several days ago the ladies of Waverly, this county, petitioned the county commissioners not to grant liquor licenses in the village. The voters petitioned for license, and the court, unheeding the petition of the women, issued a license to one saloon. To-day a large delegation of the leading women of Waverly appeared before the commissioners in a body, and for several hours entered the most vigorous protest against the saloon. When confronted with the application for a license, endorsed by the men, they were greatly astonished, and immediately gave up the fight, and returned home, promising to make it very warm for those who signed the petition.

Killed His Aged Mother.

READING, Pa., May 7.—David Clay, aged forty-two, killed his mother, Rebecca, aged eighty-five, with whom he lived, at Mt. Aetna, this county, to-day, while the family were seated at the breakfast table. Mrs. Clay was smoking her pipe. Suddenly her son became terribly enraged and seizing a hammer, dashed at her and dealt her a terrific blow on the head with the hammer, felling her to the floor. As she lay prostrate her son bent over her and delivered six more blows. She died after lingering three hours. Clay left the house, but kept the crowd away from him by his strength. He was finally overpowered and brought to the Reading jail. At the jail he stated that he had been bewitched by his mother and that God and Jesus Christ had commanded him to kill her.

Another Counterfeiter Arrested.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 7.—Another chapter in the famous Lancaster counterfeiting conspiracy was made public to-day by the arrest of Harry Taylor, charged with passing the counterfeit twenty dollar notes found in circulation last week. Taylor was captured by Matthew S. Griffin, of the secret service, and when confronted with the evidence of his guilt, confessed his part in the conspiracy. He was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Edmunds and committed in default of $10,000 bail for trial. Taylor admitted having passed all the spurious notes of the Manning head denomination recently discovered in this city.

THE BOERS RETREATING EVERYWHERE.

Superior Forces of the English Compel the Federals to Retire in Every Direction.

THE VET RIVER ENGAGEMENT

Personally Directed by Lord Roberts and Kitchener—Queen Remembers the Hero of Kimberley.

LONDON, May 8, 4:20 a. m.—The Boers are everywhere retreating before the British except on the Natal frontier and at Mafeking to the inner circle of their defenses. They appear determined not to fight until the Kroonstad hills are reached.

Lord Roberts is expected to do another forty or fifty miles and then wait for a time in order to bring up supplies and to repair the railway. There are one or two hints in the dispatches from the front that he may rest for a few days at Smaldeel.

General French's 10,000 cavalry have not been mentioned in the official or unofficial dispatches for four days. It is by no means likely that he is idle, and the conjecture is that he is either detouring towards Kroonstad or raiding the Ladybrand district.

Fifteen thousand British are now operating on the western border of the Free State. As the dead-lock at Warrenton has broken and the Boers are retreating there is nothing formidable except distance between them and Warrenton and Mafeking. The most hopeful advice from Mafeking on April 22 were that the garrison would be barely able to hold out for a month. At that time the fever was spreading.

According to advices from Maseru, Basutoland, several thousand Free State men are north of Ladybrand, where they have collected great herds. The district is rich in food for men and horses, and the Boers seem resolved to not move northward, but to be preparing to resist where they are. If they are left alone they will menace the line of communications after the main British army has passed into the Transvaal.

Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener personally directed the artillery in the Vet river engagement.

Queen Victoria will send a signed photograph to Colonel Kekewich, the hero of Kimberley.

Six thousand four hundred and fifty-eight troops are now at sea on the way to South Africa. No others are under orders to go, except as recruits to fill up the losses of regiments at the front.

Whisky Comes High.

LONDON, May 7.—Lady Sarah Wilson wires from Mafeking, under date of April 22, as follows:

"The situation is unchanged. The garrison is depressed at there being no sign of relief, but is as determined as ever to deprive the Boers of crowning triumph on the western border. A case of whisky realized $50 at a raffie, and a pound of flour was sold at auction for two guineas."

Hunter Defeats the Enemy.

LONDON, May 7, 7:20 p. m.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts, dated Smaldeel, May 7, 10:55 a. m.:

"General Hunter, after defeating the enemy May 4, joined hands with Paget near Warrenton. The enemy left thirteen killed and wounded on the ground, and we captured several prisoners. Our losses were slight.

"Hunter speaks in high terms of the gallantry of the Yeomanry, under Col. Mayrick.

"The enemy have retired from the front of Thaba N'Chu and the exceedingly strong position they held is now occupied by Rundle's division."

British on the Vaal.

WARRENTON, Cape Colony, May 7.—The British have been driven out of Fourteen Strams and the Boers are now encamped on the north bank of the Vaal river.

ATTACKED BY REBELS.

Americans Forced to Kill a Large Number of Filipinos.

MANILA, May 7.—Two rebel attacks on the American garrisons in the Visayan islands recently have resulted in the killing of 280 of the enemy and the wounding of two Americans.

At daybreak May 1, four hundred rebels, a hundred of them armed with rifles, attacked Catarman, in northern Samar, in the vicinity of Catubig. Company F, of the Forty-third regiment, was garrisoning the place. The enemy built trenches on the outskirts of the town during the night and fired volleys persistently into it until the Americans, charging the trenches, scattered the Filipinos and killed 155 of them. Three Americans were wounded. This attack was precipitated by the enemy's recent successful fight at Catubig. The garrison of Catarman has been removed to the sea port of Legaan.

A force of Filipinos estimated to number two hundred men, armed with rifles, and six hundred armed with bolos, and operating four muzzle loading cannons, attacked Jaro on Leyte island, April 15, which place was garrisoned by twenty-five men of Company B, of the Forty-third regiment, Lieutenant Estes commanding. Estes left fifteen men to protect the town and with the remaining ten men he advanced on the enemy in two squads, sheltered by the ridges south of the town, whence they stood off the Filipinos for three hours. Then twenty armed members of the local police force sallied out to help Estes' Americans. The latter, with the police, charged the enemy, and together they dispersed the Filipinos and after the fight was over, buried 125 of them.

NUMBER OF BISHOPS

To be Elected by the Methodists is the Question Before the Conference. Plenty of Candidates for the Office.

CHICAGO, May 7.—As the time approaches for settling the question of how many bishops are to be elected by the Methodist general conference the sentiment is growing among the delegates that none of the present occupants of the high office should be retired and placed on the superannuated list.

It seems probable that, because of the advanced age of several members of the episcopacy, the committee on episcopacy will recommend the election of five additional bishops. Three will be for work in this country and two to supervise the missionary work in Asia. This is the programme in favor with a majority of the members of the committee on episcopacy. The convention to-day began active work on the questions referred to it by the conference. Chairman Buckley was authorized to appoint sub-committees on tenure of office, missionary bishops, districting of bishops, episcopal residences and general reference. A score of memorials were read and referred to the appropriate committees without discussion.

There are twenty or more avowed candidates for the high office of bishop, notwithstanding the fact that it is not likely that more than five additions to the present board of episcopacy will be made. Among those most prominently mentioned for bishop are Dr. J. W. Hamilton, of New York; Dr. J. F. Berry, of Chicago; Dr. Henry Spellmeyer, of Newark; Dr. T. B. Neely, of Philadelphia; Dr. Wm. F. McDowell, of Colorado, and Dr. W. V. Kelley, of New York. It is probable that much opposition to the election of a colored bishop will appear when the matter is taken up by the conference. The southern delegates, it is said, will vote solidly in favor of the innovation, but hundreds of representatives of northern conferences, it is said, will oppose it. The great number of white candidates for bishop, it is believed, will operate against the chances of Dr. J. E. Bowen, of Washington, the leading colored aspirant, and several prominent delegates declare that the election of Dr. Bowen by the present conference is by no means certain. Members of the committee on temporal economy listened to the reading of a mass of memorials and resolutions suggesting changes in the management of the church's affairs. Chairman King was instructed to appoint six sub-committees and the different documents were referred to these sub-committees without being discussed.

The committee on temperance listened to the reading of several memorials referred to it by the general conference. One memorial condemned President McKinley for laxity in enforcing the anti-canteen law, and was generally discussed, but no action was taken.

Another recommended changing the book of discipline so that members who rent property for saloon purposes may be brought to trial. They are all referred to the sub-committee for consideration.
